Dear Sirs.

My father, Alexis Illyne of S Priajka River, Leningrad, Russia, a notorious Russian numismat has sent you some time ago his work on "Topography of the Russian treasures of silver ingots & silver & copper feudal coins".

Actually I received a letter from him with a request to inquire whether you have received or not the above-mentioned work.

Kindly answer me to:-

A. Illyne

and I will greatly appreciate your courtesy.

Yours very truly
A. Illyne.

Dear Sir:

Responding to your letter of September 25th, we have the articles by your father, of which you write, but I am almost certain that they were received from M. Pridik, of the Hermitage, Leningrad, along with a lot of other Russian periodicals and reprints. Had these come bearing your father's name, I am reasonably sure that an acknowledgment would have been sent.

Very truly yours,

Librarian & Secretary
